STATE PRACTICE ON ILC AGENDA ITEMS ESSAY COMPETITION

Rashtriya Raksha University is pleased to launch the 1st RRU Public International Law Conclave on 4th February, 2022. The Conclave shall be a unique first-of-its-kind platform in India where students from across the country and globally shall get an opportunity to deliberate on contemporary issues of International Law. The Conclave shall aim at realignment of the global discourse on International Law from being Euro-American centric to align with the strategic interests of African, Asian and other developing countries. It shall also be a platform for students to interact with experts, academicians and practitioners in International Law from across the globe.

As a part of the Conclave, RRU is launching an essay writing competition. The theme of the competition shall be 'Commentary on State Practice on the present International Law Commission Agenda Items'. Participants may choose to comment on any nation's state practice on the following topics:

1. PROVISIONAL APPLICATION OF TREATIES
2. PROTECTION OF THE ATMOSPHERE
3. IMMUNITY OF STATE OFFICIALS FROM FOREIGN CRIMINAL JURISDICTION
4. PROTECTION OF ENVIRONMENT IN RELATION TO ARMED CONFLICT
5. PEREMPTORY NORMS OF GENERAL INTERNATIONAL LAW (JUS COGENS)
6. SUCCESSION OF STATE IN RESPECT TO STATE RESPONSIBILITY
7. GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF LAW
8. SEA LEVEL RISE IN RELATION TO INTERNATIONAL LAW
9. CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY
10. PIRACY AND ARMED ROBBERY

For more clarity regarding the topics, participants are encouraged to visit the ILC website:
