- (a) Preliminary Rounds,
- (b) Quarter-Final Rounds,
- (c) Semi-Final Rounds, and
- (d) Final Round

a) PRELIMINARY ROUNDS: There shall be two Preliminary Rounds. Each team will be given opportunity to argue on both sides (i.e., Petitioner and Respondent) in the Preliminary Rounds which shall be determined by way of drawing of lots. Each team shall get a total of 30 minutes to present its case. This time will include five minutes of rebuttal. The division of time between the speakers is at the discretion of the team members, subject to a maximum of 20 minutes for any one speaker. Before the commencement of arguments, each team shall inform to the Court Office as to how it wishes to allocate its 30 minutes.

The top 8 teams based on cumulative marks (Memorials and oral submissions) shall qualify for the Quarter-Final rounds. In case of a tie, Memorial score will be considered to break the tie. If the Memorial marks are equal, then the speaker scores will be considered to break the tie. If the tie is still not broken, then the team to advance to the Quarter-Final rounds will be decided by drawing of lots.

b) QUARTER-FINAL ROUNDS: In the Quarter-Final round each team shall argue for only one side, which shall be determined by drawing of lots. On the basis of knock-out, 4 (four) teams shall advance to the Semi-Final rounds. The rules governing the preliminary rounds regarding time are applicable to Quarter-Final rounds too. In case of tie, the speaker scores at the Quarter-Final rounds will be considered to determine the team qualifying for the Semi-Final rounds. If the tie is yet not broken, then the team advancing to the Semi-Final rounds will be decided by drawing of lots.

c) SEMI-FINAL ROUNDS: The rules governing the Quarter-Final rounds shall mutatis mutandis be applicable to the Semi-Final rounds. On the basis of knock-out, two teams shall advance to the final round.

d) FINAL ROUND: Each team shall argue for only one side which shall be determined by way of drawing of lots. Each team shall get a total of 45 minutes to present its case. This time will include rebuttal. The division of the time is at the discretion of the team members, subject to a maximum of 25 minutes for any one speaker (including rebuttal time). In case of tie, the rules governing Quarter-Final and Semi-Final rounds shall mutatis mutandis be applicable to the final round.
