About the Conference:

Women have been since the very advent of the human civilization given a pivotal role. Let that be the praise to Mother Mary or the various forms of goddesses. Females were thought to be essential to the very existence of the humans because after all they were the germinators and the birth givers. They were not just nurturing the baby but the future of the country and the family. Yet the reality is not as flowery as it all seems to be. Women have not only have been subjugated in their families and society but were also denied the basic rights.

Equality till date has been a myth which has never seen the light of the day. Let that be in India, Saudi Arabia or any country for that matter. In a society where a lady isn't safe in her own house with her own spouse and in-laws, is a shame on the society. If a female worker isn't paid her dues she deserves, is gender wage gap. If a girl is harassed on a social media platform, is a patriarchal thinking. Today, we need break free from all these bondages and step towards equity. By the way of this conference, we wish to come up with concrete and realistic solutions which can help uplift this community at large.
