SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- The Journal invites submissions of original articles, notes, comments and essays on any contemporary legal issue connected with media law and its allied fields of communications, entertainment, and technology.
- The final draft of the submission should be in electronic form. The electronic submissions should be made only in Microsoft Word (.doc/docx) format. Electronic copies of the submissions should be mailed to: cmet.rmlnlul@gmail.com
- Submissions are to be made in Times New Roman font, size 12, 1.5 line spacing. Footnoting should be done in accordance with Oxford Standard Citation of Legal Authorities in Times New Roman font, size 10, 1.0 line spacing.
- The submission must include an abstract of 250-300 words with the author(s)' name and college as a footnote. The abstract is to detail relevant observations drawn through the manuscript as well as final conclusions. A minimum of five keywords establishing the scope of the manuscript are also required to be submitted. There is no requirement of prior submission of abstract as the selection of the paper for publication shall be on the full manuscript.
- Entries may be submitted under the following categories:
 1. Articles: The prescribed word limit is 5000-8000 words. These are evaluations of specific contemporary issues and aim at conceptualizing the issues in a unique and unconventional manner. The assessment of contemporary issues shall be appreciated, though not mandatory.
 2. Case comments: The prescribed word limit is 3000-6000 words. These are assessments of contemporary judgments and legislations.
 3. Book reviews: The prescribed word limit is 2000-4000 words. Entries submitted under this category may present innovative evaluations of present literature.
- Submissions must not have been published or accepted elsewhere. The Journal Committee of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University reserves the right to edit the articles once it has been selected for publication.
- The submissions are to be accompanied with a covering letter giving details about the author (Name, year, university, address, contact details).
- For further details, please visit: <http://www.rmlnlul.ac.in/cmet.html>
