Conference Overview

The Model United Nations Society (MUNSOC) of Alliance School of Law takes immense pleasure in inviting students from all streams, branches and levels to participate in Alliance University Model United Nations Conference. The current difficult times brought upon us by the ongoing pandemic has once again reminded the world of the essence of international co-operation and co-ordination. The need for mutual reliance, feeling of oneness and search for global solutions have been put back in focus by the turbulent times we live in.

In a world that is becoming increasingly hostile, overtly political, and unfairly exclusionary; it is not only essential for upcoming academicians and students to be aware of international issues, but the need of the hour is to enable them to take an active role in debating and policy-making around these issues. We, at Alliance University, Alliance School of Law have always emphasized upon the importance of international organisations, maintenance of international relations and protection of human rights. Hence, Alliance University Model United Nations Conference (AUMUN) provides an excellent platform for our esteemed delegates to discuss, debate, and deliberate upon fundamental and pertinent international topics.

It is said that any war is a failure of diplomacy. Here, at AUMUN and Alliance University, we intend to help prepare the leaders of tomorrow for a world that is peaceful, inclusionary, and tolerant.
