Centre for Criminal Justice Administration

'To promote the study and research with respect to criminal justice administration including all its stakeholders i.e. Investigation (Police), Prosecution, Court and Prison Administration, the SCLC has established the Centre for Criminal Justice Administration (CCJA). The Centre intends to perform wide range of activities such as organising awareness programmes in the form of conferences, seminars, undertaking research project in collaboration with various agencies, critical evaluation of laws, Government policies and judgement of constitutional courts etc.

About The Conference

The criminal justice system is the set of agencies and processes established by the government with the objective of controlling the incident of crime in a society and to penalise the violation of law. Criminal justice prevailing in any society can be considered as the reflection of society's cherished values and policies, in substance the level of civilisation attained by it. In last few decades globalisation and technological advancements have posed peculiar challenges to criminal justice systems in terms of investigation of crime and question of jurisdiction.

Many committees and commissions have underlined the various shortcomings of Indian Criminal Justice administration in the form of procedural victimisation, less conviction rates and inadequacy to address the issues of vulnerable section of the community such as women, children and scheduled caste and schedule tribes. In addition to these pre-existing short falls lockdown imposed due to covid 19 has underlined the inadequacies of our criminal justice system and its inability to deal with the new situation efficiently. It has worked as an eye opener necessitating the need to introspect and find out new modalities and solutions to deal with the problems persisting in the system. Further even though the pandemic has aggravated some of the problems regarding criminal justice administration, it is undeniable truth that many problems such as procedural victimisation, hostility of witnesses and inability to address the needs of vulnerable section of the society which affected significantly the efficient administration of the criminal justice were and are prevailing.

It is with this objective, the Centre for Criminal Justice Administration of our college considered it necessary to have the brain storming discussion regarding various problems prevailing in our criminal justice system and to find out solution to deal with them in this changing times. With this objective this conference is organised in which judges, lawyers, police officers, academicians, in short various stakeholders of system will give their insight to have fruitful discussion.
