- Name of the forum resolving the dispute.
- There will be a deduction of 1.0 mark for each page exceeding the 25-page limit, and a deduction of 0.25 marks for each 'objective' error, i.e., non-adherence to the rules set out hereinabove.

Shri N J Yasaswy 6th Memorial International Virtual Moot Court Competition, 2021

- This negative marking (along with the negative marking for delayed submission) shall be deducted once from the total memorial score obtained by a team.
- NOTE: For the sake of convenience the rules refer to the parties as the Appellant and the Respondent. This particular information does not in any way suggest the nature of the moot problem and the same shall be applicable to the adversary parties by whatever name they be called.

7. SCORING OF MEMORIALS:

- The memorials shall be checked by a panel of three judges. Each judge shall score each memorial out of 20 marks, and the average of scores shall be announced by the Organizers on the conclusion of the Preliminary Rounds. The ranking of teams shall be on the basis of the average of their scores for the Appellant and Respondent Memorials (after appropriate deductions, if any).
- The scoring criteria for memorials would be made available on request.

8. ORAL ARGUMENTS:

- The language for the Competition shall be English
- Each team would be given 30 minutes to present their oral arguments, subject to a minimum of 12 minutes per Speaker in the Preliminary Rounds and Second Round. This shall include the pleadings and any rebuttal time, if applicable.
- Each team would be given 45 Minutes to present oral arguments, subjected to a minimum of 20 minutes per speaker. This shall include the pleadings and any rebuttal time, if applicable. For the Semi Finals and Final Rounds.
- Rebuttal would be allowed only to the Appellant and will be inclusive of the time designated for each team. The Appellant will have to specify the length of time they want to set aside for rebuttal, before beginning their oral arguments
- During Preliminary Rounds, each team shall have to argue once for the Appellant and once for the Respondent. It is clarified that participating team shall argue for both the Appellants and the Respondents in the Preliminary Round itself.

Shri N J Yasaswy 6th Memorial International Virtual Moot Court Competition, 2021

- Teams with two wins in the Preliminary Rounds will go to the Second Round. If there are more than 8 teams having two wins each, the teams with two wins each will be ranked according to their total scores and the top eight teams so ranked will go to the Second Round. If after ranking of the total scores, teams are still tied, the teams so tied will be ranked according to their memorial scores.
- If there are less than eight teams having two wins each, the teams having two wins each will go to the second Round. For the remaining places, teams having less than two wins each will be ranked according to the sum of their highest scores in both Preliminary Rounds, and the top teams thus ranked will be sent to the second Round. The second Round shall be a knock out round.
- The second Round shall be succeeded by the Semi-final Round, and the Final Round which shall also be knock out rounds
- If a team scheduled to take part in a round does not appear for 10 minutes after the scheduled start of the round, a walkover shall be declared in favour of the team present.

9. COMPENDIUM (IF ANY)

- Compendium compilation is not compulsory. It is purely at the discretion of the team.
- The teams have to send their compendiums, if any, on 20th of August, 2021 before 11:59 pm for both Moot Problem I and Moot Problem II at mootcourt@ifheindia.org
- Make sure the Compendium is properly paginated.
