ABOUT MNLU, NAGPUR

Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur was established by the Government of Maharashtra by way of enactment known as the Maharashtra National Law University Act (Maharashtra Act No. VI of 2014). It is a residential University engaged in promoting quality legal education and conducting cutting-edge research on thriving issues of law, social science, and humanities. The university is presently offering B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course, B.A.LL.B. (Hons. in Adjudication and Justicing) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course, LL.M. One-Year Postgraduate Degree Course, Ph.D. in interface with the law and legal issues, besides Diploma and Certificate Courses. While it has strong student-centric goals, it also focuses extensively on the all-round development of its bright and diligent faculty members, motivating them to attain new heights. In order to realize this holistic vision and keep in view the spirit of the Constitution, the University strives for excellence, through its centres established for advanced legal studies, research, and advocacy to address socio-legal issues and challenges. Some of the centres have already started working on offering courses, conducting seminars, conferences, and training programs for the identified target groups.

ABOUT CENTRE FOR ENERGY AND TELECOMMUNICATION

LAWS (CETL)

The Centre for Energy and Telecommunication Laws (CETL) was established as one of the Centres of Excellence by Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur in the year 2018. Since its inception, the Centre has been engaged in intensive and extensive research on important contemporary issues in the field of Energy and Telecommunication Laws. The Centre has submitted suggestions for the proposed Amendment to Electricity Act, 2003, and has also proposed some additional changes in the form of a separate Draft Bill to the Ministry of Power, Government of India.

The Centre aims to focus on teaching, capacity-building, holding seminars and workshops for different stakeholders in Energy and Telecommunication sector. It endeavors to offer academic contributions to energy and telecommunication policy-making by publishing reports, journals, books, and newsletters. The objective of the Centre is to promote research in the field of Energy and Telecommunication Laws yet maintaining an interdisciplinary approach towards the subject by involving all the stakeholders of the fraternity.

CONCEPT NOTE

Energy is the modern-day fuel of every nation. Energy Sector contributes significantly to the growth of every country. The sector varies in its nature. With the advent of environmental challenges, the need for a strong energy policy and strategic framework is a matter of urgency. The challenges encountered by the sector are pervasive and affect everyone. Apart from meeting energy demands, energy policy serves varied purposes. These include not jeopardizing a nation's or community's ability to act freely in international affairs; reducing vulnerability to dependence and potentially devastating embargoes; maximizing the use of national and regional resources; avoiding intolerable import spending; and ensuring essential economic, monetary, and social equilibrium and ensuring access to energy at a micro-level. Through the platform of this colloquium, we strive to enable a discourse that invites perspectives from multitudes so that a comprehensive way forward can prevail.

The Centre for Energy and Telecommunication Laws of Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur takes this opportunity to provide a platform for the intellectual discourse by organizing the International Energy Law Colloquium - 2022.
